WELCOME

From family parties to film premieres, The May Fair Hotel has played host to glamorous stays and star-studded events for nearly a century.

Whether spending an evening in our intimate restaurant or taking up residence in of the sumptuous suites, experience the inviting charm of Mayfair luxury.

1927

Their Majesties King George V and Queen Mary tour The May Fair Hotel, the day before it opens. It's the first new hotel in London in over 20 years.

1938

New hairdressing salons are installed, along with a lounge and writing room.

1942

The first and seventh floors are closed after bomb damage.

1943

Thirty US officers are billeted at The May Fair.

1951

The death of Sir Francis Towle CBE, the former managing director, is announced.

1958

The Danziger brothers take over The May Fair and begin to transform the hotel.

1960 - 1963

The legendary Beachcomber nightclub opens in 1960, followed by the Boulevard de Paris restaurant and May Fair Theatre.

1964

Grand Metropolitan take over The May Fair. The famous ballroom and the Boulevard de Paris restaurant are closed to make way for The Palm Beach Casino.

1982

The hotel joins the InterContinental Hotels Group.

1984 The Beachcomber nightclub closes and The Crystal Room, an elegant ballroom, opens.

1987

The May Fair celebrates its Diamond Jubilee.

2004 - 2006

The May Fair Hotel is bought by the prestigious Edwardian Group London. Over 30 months they spend £75 million refurbishing it.

2007

The May Fair becomes the Official Hotel partner to London Fashion Week. May Fair Bar is awarded 'The Best Hotel Bar' in London.

2008

The May Fair Hotel is announced as the Official Hotel for the BFI London Film Festival.

2012

The hotel's latest addition is unveiled: The Cigar Room. The May Fair receives a Green Tourism Gold Award.

2012 - 2014

The May Fair Hotel features in the Cool Brands UK list three years running.

2014

Quince, the hotel's restaurant, is closed and May Fair Kitchen is opened.

2015

May Fair Bar, home of the signature May Fair Mojito, is refurbished and relaunched in autumn 2015.

2016

May Fair Kitchen is re-modelled and reopened, and the Cigar Room is transformed into May Fair Terrace.

2018

May Fair Kitchen becomes the flagship Kitchen, serving Spanish and Italian small plates and signature Peruvian, Mexican, Mediterranean and Japanese dishes from its sister kitchens.

2019

The hotel joins The Radisson Collection, a portfolio of exquisite hotels around the world.

THE PENTHOUSE SUITE

Welcome to one of London's most exclusive residences. The Penthouse Suite's 100-foot sweeping terrace and panoramic city views are as remarkable as its elegant features, from the marble bath to the cowhide chaise longue to the master bedroom. Situated on the 9th floor of The May Fair, it boasts a private lift and lobby, as well as kitchenette for those home comforts. Away from the bustle of the city, The Penthouse Suite provides space and luxury on its grandest scale, ideal for long stays or simply a weekend of indulgence.

THE EBONY SUITE

Enter a sanctuary of Japanese style concealed in the heart of Mayfair. Inside, futuristic TOTO technology is complimented with a chic, modern interior, and stone elephants that accentuate positive feng shui. Perfect for two, there is an optional second bedroom with private lobby which makes the suite feel more like an apartment than a bedroom. In the evening, the private terrace makes a picture-perfect setting for romantic al fresco dining.
